License Application Process

1. You must first express interest in licensing opportunities by submitting the Initial Interest Form located on the World Energy Management website. After your interest level has been qualified, you will be assigned a username and password in order to submit a proposal in the next step. If you have already submitted your interest and have been qualified, you will be notified by email and given your assigned username and password.
2. Submit a preliminary proposal that allows Genesis World Energy and World Energy Management to become acquainted with the opportunity you would like to pursue.

Submit your proposal by clicking here.

Your proposal must include the following:

- a. Intended Market and General Marketing Plan
 - i. What sovereign nation markets do you wish to address?
 - ii. Which parts of the supply chain are you interested in: manufacturing, distributing, selling, and servicing devices to end customers?
 - iii. What energy outputs would work best for your intended markets?
 - iv. Provide us with your estimated goal for the quantities of products you would like to deliver to customers, by month, over thirty-six months commencing with regular customer deliveries.
 - v. What existing or possible marketing inroads do you have within your target market?
- b. Preliminary Operational and Financial Plan
 - i. What facilities do you have available or plan to obtain to accomplish your marketing goals? How do you plan to obtain them?
 - ii. What staffing resources will you have available or plan to obtain in meeting your marketing goals? How will you obtain them?
 - iii. How do you plan to capitalize the set-up and operational phases associated with meeting your marketing goals?
 - iv. How do you plan to meet Genesis World Energy's quality assurance and inspection requirements?
 - v. How do you plan to meet Genesis World Energy's licensee qualifications on an ongoing basis?
- c. Proposal Summary
 - i. Please provide all relevant contact information.
 - ii. Please close your preliminary proposal by providing compelling reasons why you should be granted a license, including how your participation will positively benefit the people of the world.
4. Once you have submitted your preliminary proposal, you will be contacted regarding your application status and will be provided with instructions for completing the application process.
