

Dean Jamieson,

I am forwarding this e-mail to you as I am not comfortable making the decision to remove the research area from our webpage. Please advise how I shall proceed. See e-mails below.

Thank you,
Erica Timmerman

-----Original Message-----

From: Reece, Kellie A
Sent: Monday, September 18, 2006 4:54 PM
To: Timmerman, Erica
Subject: FW: Sonofusion

Hi,

Am I suppose to do something with the below?

Kellie A. Reece
Secretary IV
School of Nuclear Engineering
Purdue University
400 Central Drive
West Lafayette, IN 47907

kreece@purdue.edu

Phone: 765-494-5739
Fax: 765-494-9570

Choi tried to get SNF removed from the NVCL web site

```
o o O O O O O O O O
o
Y _ ' _ _ _ _
--+++++--
_ _ _ GO || PURDUE | BOILERS!
{ _ _ _ _ _ : _ _ _ _ _ : _ _ _ _ _
//OO-----OO OO OO OO OO
```

-----Original Message-----

From: Chan Choi [mailto:choi@ecn.purdue.edu]
Sent: Monday, September 18, 2006 4:50 PM
To: Kevin Mueller; Lefteri H. Tsoukalas; Reece, Kellie A
Subject: Re: Sonofusion

Dear Kevin,

It caught me by surprise as I was not aware of its presence in our webpage.
I will bring it to the attention to the Head of the School and our website specialist for an immediate action.

Thank you.

Chan Choi
Kevin Mueller wrote:

- > Professor,
- >
- > With all the controversy surrounding sonoluminescence, why does the
- > Purdue Nuclear Engineering website advertise it? SEE BELOW, at bottom
- > of website.
- >
- > <https://engineering.purdue.edu/NE/Research/inoklab>
- >
- > Just Wondering,
- > Kevin